Scandalous violation of law in 50:50 ratio site distribution

MUDA Commissioner grilled for seven hours

IAS Officer-led team from Bengaluru raids MUDA Office; Seizes 140 files

Mysuru, June 28 (RK&BCT)- In a surprise visit yesterday afternoon, a three-member team led by an IAS Officer grilled Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) Commissioner G.T. Dinesh Kumar and other officials over reports of MUDA allotting about 4,500 to 5,000 sites to land losers under a 50:50 ratio, allegedly circumventing the rules.

The inspection team from Bengaluru comprised IAS Officer Venkatachalapathy, Commissioner of Town and Country Planning and Development Directorate, Superintending Engineer-grade Officers, N.K. Thippeswamy, Director, Town and Country Planning Department and S. Gopalakrishna, Joint Director of the Town and Country Planning Department.

G.T. Dinesh Kumar, MUDA Commissioner

SOM report, MLA's letter

On June 26, Star of Mysore published a report titled 'MUDA allotted 4,500 to 5,000 sites illegally under 50:50 ratio,' highlighting how MUDA officials violated rules.

Following the SOM report, Krishnaraja MLA T.S. Srivatsa wrote to the State Government seeking action against the guilty officers, suspecting that these violations caused MUDA a loss of hundreds of crores of rupees after it distributed sites in prime residential layouts including Vijayanagar, Dattagalli, J.P. Nagar and R.T. Nagar. The large-scale irregularities were revealed in a report by a Technical Committee constituted by the Government to investigate a complaint submitted by P.S. Nataraj.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

HARSHNESS DESTROYS, GENTLENESS SHAPES: The River Piedra in Spain during its course divides up to form dozens of waterfalls. Beneath one of the waterfalls stands a grotto whose stone walls have been worn smooth by time, the beautiful shapes patiently created by Nature. A plaque next to the grotto bears the words of Rabindranath Tagore, "It wasn't the sculptor's hammer that shaped these stones so perfectly. It was the water, with its gentleness, its dance, and its song. Harshness destroys, gentleness shapes."

Aesop's fable teaches a valuable lesson that gentleness always wins out over force. Once the Wind and the Sun entered into a debate over who was more powerful and influential. The Wind claimed that it was more powerful, while the Sun felt that it was supreme. They agreed to a contest.

They said that whoever could make a person remove his coat would win. So they picked a man who was making his way home on a long trip by foot. The Wind went first. It blew hard so that the man's coat comes off. It huffed and puffed. But the harder the wind blew, the more intently the man wrapped his coat tightly around himself. The Wind tried for a long time to get the man to take his coat off, but miserably failed.

Next, the Sun had its turn. It began to send warm rays down, gently upon the man. After a while the man began to feel warm. He unbuttoned his coat. The sun continued to shine on him. Finally, the man felt warm enough and took off his coat. With a smile, the Sun said to the Wind, "As you can see, my warm, loving ways made him remove his coat, while your strong, forceful ways caused him to resist."

Gentleness does not mean weakness but it is a strength born of empathy and understanding. It is the art of treating others with kindness and respect. It is nurtured by a mature and seasoned temperament. Gentleness is a lush rose bush with no thorns. Its imperishable beauty and sweet fragrance invite people to inhale deeply of its aroma with no threat of harm.

Harshness may temporarily assert control or dominance but ultimately destroys bonds, breaks spirits and leaves wounds that take a long time to heal. In contrast, the power of gentleness to shape lives and heal hearts cannot be overstated. —Jayanthi Chandrasekaran in Deccan Herald

Order Confirmed, May 16, 2018

Mumbai: A man who placed an order on one of the e-commerce platforms six years ago recently received a call from them to discuss the same. Ahsan Kharbai ordered a pair of Sparx slippers in May 2018 but never received them. After the long delay, the e-commerce platform customer support recently reached out to him, leaving him amused.

Kharbai said the slippers never arrived, and the app always showed they were "arriving today". Even now, the status remains the same, he told. Kharbai explained the order was a cash-on-delivery transaction, hence he did not pursue the matter further. The customer care representative asked if he had received any call from the logistics team, and then apologised for the issue, saying they were "very sorry for this sir".

'Cosmic Baseball' the future of the sport

New York: A Southern collegiate baseball team has been getting a lot of attention for hosting "cosmic baseball" games played at night, under black lights, with players using UV-reactive uniforms, balls, and bats. With balls flying toward players, baseball isn't the kind of game that can be played in less-than-perfect lighting conditions, but one Southern collegiate baseball team has found a way to make it playable in the dark. Using black light installations and UV-reactive uniforms, balls, bats and bases, the Tri-City Chili Peppers have been putting together 'cosmic baseball' games that look like something out of a Tron movie. Despite the seemingly pitch-black atmosphere, players claim that after a bit of practice, playing under UV lights becomes second nature, as does seeing the ball, no matter how hard it's hit or thrown.

VOICE OF THE READER

95-year-old solver of SOM cryptoquip puzzle

Sir,

Sometime ago, a Star of Mysore reader had written in the this column about how much he enjoyed solving the cryptoquip puzzle and had thanked you for publishing the puzzle that provided so much intellectual pleasure to him and like-minded people. He had also suggested that habitual solvers of the puzzle could get-together sometimes.

I have pleasure in informing this friend that I am one who belongs to his group. I look forward to getting SOM every evening just to crack cryptoquip, besides enjoying the news and articles.

Besides, I do it entirely mentally, without jotting down the letters. I am in my 95th year. I am not saying this as a boast but just to illustrate what one can do with effort and practice.

The friend can get in touch with me, if he likes by messaging me on Facebook.

Valmiki Development Corporation Scam

BJP stages massive protest, seeks resignation of CM Siddaramaiah

Police foil bid to lay siege to DC Office

Mysuru, June 28 (GA&DM)- As part of its Statewide agitation demanding the resignation of Chief Minister Siddaramaiah in connection with the alleged financial irregularities to the tune of Rs.187 crore in the Karnataka Maharshi Valmiki Scheduled Tribes Development Corporation (KMVSTDC), the City and District Units of the BJP staged a massive protest in front of the new Deputy Commissioner's Office in Siddarthanagar here this morning.

Addressing the protestors, Krishnaraja MLA T.S. Srivatsa said "It is a Rs.187 crore mega scam. The ruling Congress has misused most of the amount and spent at least Rs.89 crore. It transferred money to numerous suspicious bank accounts in Bengaluru Rural, Ballari and Davanagere districts, Hyderabad etc., in a suspected bid to fund Congress LS polls campaign."

Wanting to know why the Finance Department was not informed when new Bank accounts were opened in great haste and the amount transferred, Srivatsa said the resignation of Minister B. Nagendra is not enough. He demanded that Medical Education Minister Dr. Sharan Prakash Patil, KMVSTDC Chairman Basavaraj Daddal and CM Siddaramaiah, who holds the Finance portfolio resign en masse in connection with the scam.

Earlier, the BJP workers who gathered in front of KMF Milk Dairy on Bannur Road in hordes from across the district, marched in a procession raising slogans against the Siddaramaiah Government to the new DC Office and tried to lay siege to the Office. But the large posse of Policemen, who were present at the spot, foiled the attempt by taking some of the BJP workers into preventive custody and dispersing others by resorting to mild lathi charge. City BJP President L. Nagendra, District President L.R. Mahadevaswamy, former Deputy Mayor V. Shailendra and others were present.

The scam came to light after P. Chandrashekaran, an Accounts Superintendent of KMVSTDC, was found dead last month. He had reportedly left behind a suicide note alleging illegal transfer of money from the Corporation to various Bank accounts.

Walk to learn civic issues in your Wards: GTD tells MCC Officers

Mysuru, June 28 (MK&BS)- Chamundeshwari JD(S) MLA G.T. Devegowda (GTD) has suggested the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) officials to go on a walk or a tour of the Wards in their jurisdiction in the morning hours, to understand the problems faced by people and redress them.

He was speaking during a progress review meeting on MCC Wards in the limits of his Constituency, at Jayachamaraja Wadiyar Hall of MCC yesterday.

Directing the officials to act responsibly, GTD said "By visiting the Wards in the early hours, the Officers can prepare a list of grievances and find solutions to them at the earliest. By doing so, the Officers should address minor issues, so that the residents grappled with issues won't knock on their doors. Let the serious issues remain, but ensure foolproof job on your part."

In the absence of Corporators, MCC Officers should have a direct contact with people and respond to their woes pertaining to drinking water, electricity and Underground Drainage (UGD), he said.

Earlier, GTD who took MCC Officers to task over erratic water supply, UGD and improper maintenance of parks, which were brought to his notice by residents, warned the Officers to take precautionary measures and do follow up about the action taken.

He sought explanation about problems being faced in Ward Nos. 7, 44, 45, 46 and 58 and Vijayanagar Fourth Stage and directed to solve them in a speedy manner and apprise him.

The intention behind building a park will be fruitful only when it is maintained properly. Or else, they will turn into a haven of illicit activities. There are 16 parks in Chamundeshwari Constituency coming under MCC limits, the maintenance of which should be proper, without giving room for complaints. Along with this, steps should be taken for disposal of waste generated by road side vendors, GTD told MCC Health Officer.

He also instructed to provide basic infrastructural facilities for Ashraya Houses being built by MCC in Gurur, Bogadi and Hinkal villages, before handing over them to local bodies. He also sought information about the level of construction works related to Ashraya Houses at Mandakalli.

MCC Commissioner Ashaad-Ur-Rahman Shariff, Additional Commissioner Kusuma Kumari, Superintending Engineer K.J. Sindhu, Zonal Assistant Commissioner Satyamurthy, Senior Health Officer Dr. Venkatesh and leaders of Wards were present.

'MUDA collecting taxes from Layouts handed over to MCC'

Mysuru, June 28 (MK&BS)- MLA G.T. Devegowda has directed MCC Commissioner Ashaad-Ur-Rahman Shariff to write to Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) again, not to collect taxes from the residents of Ananda Nagar, which has been already handed over to MCC.

Citing Karnataka Municipal Corporation (KMC) Act, GTD said "As per the Act, the local bodies should collect the tax, but MUDA is doing so. Instead, MUDA should direct the residents towards MCC to pay the tax."

With the handing over of MUDA - developed layouts to MCC, the latter is providing services related to issuance of Khata and creating basic infrastructural facilities. But still, MUDA is collecting the taxes and hence a letter should be written to MUDA about the matter, GTD told MCC Officers.

The blueprint of Ananda Nagar spread over an extent of 39 acres and 23 guntas has been revised thrice, before approving the same. During the first phase, there were 421 houses followed by second phase-395 houses and third phase-532 houses. At the outset, it has also come to light that, the sites have been developed on 3.17 acres of kharab land too, as mentioned in the record. The Technical Wing should inspect whether the land earmarked for developing park and Civic Amenities (CA) site is geographically available, besides taking a count of allotted and unallotted sites and those released by MUDA. The information should be obtained from land surveyors, the MLA said.

Most importantly, in the revised blueprint of Ananda Nagar, that was approved on May 5, 2003, the availability of land mentioned was 39 acres against the actual extent of 39 acres and 23 guntas, without mentioning any reasons for excluding 23 guntas of land. Hence, action should be taken after verifying the related records, said GTD.

Abracadabra... Abracadabra...

By K.B. Ganapathy

Game of Throne in Karnataka

I came and saw under the sun that the race is not to the swift; nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, not yet favour to men of skill but time and chance happens to them all.

— Old Testament

The latest buzz in media after the earlier ones about sex scandals, by a film actor and two politicians, is about who will be the next Chief Minister of Karnataka. The paradox in the question is that it is asked even as we have Siddaramaiah as Chief Minister, enthroned just about a year ago in 2023.

As we know, despite a winning chance in 2023 the BJP Government, under former CM B.S. Yediyurappa and then CM Basavaraj Bommai, squandered the opportunity. BJP scored a self-goal by its incompetent, effete and venal governance.

In the 2023 Assembly polls Siddaramaiah, the Leader of the Congress Opposition and D.K. Shivakumar, the KPCC President, charged into the electoral battle ground like bulls on rampage. Compared to this duo, BJP's B.S. Yediyurappa and Basavaraj Bommai looked like cows on the run.

Learning from experience, the two Congress stalwarts came up with an out-of-the-box idea. They launched an affirmative action plan to lure the voters — announcing five irresistible guarantees to voters when the voting day was just a couple of months away. It was that election bonanza which attracted the voters to Congress like bees to flowers.

As for BJP, it was bankrupt of ideas to fight the election, merely chanting Rama and Modi Mantra before the voters. Congress trounced BJP — 135 against a dismal 65 — and marched triumphantly to Vidhana Soudha.

As expected, this unexpected great victory with absolute majority, not having to reach out to JD(S) king-maker party of Karnataka, brought with it a problem for the Congress High Command. Who should be the Chief Minister? Siddaramaiah or D.K. Shivakumar (DKS)? That was the question bothering both the 135 Congress MLAs and the Congress High Command — read Sonia Gandhi and Rahul Gandhi. Yes, Mallikarjun Kharge from Karnataka was the new Congress President 'elected' on 17th October 2022. Mallikarjun Kharge is in the Congress High Command just as Dr. Manmohan Singh was the PM in UPA Government! Let it be.

It is not germane here to speculate who among the two contenders for CM's post is the blue-eyed boy of the High Command. Media had, at that time, spoke of Sonia's preference and of Rahul's choice. Finally, the question was answered with a caveat. Siddaramaiah would be the Chief Minister for two-and-a-half-years (of the five-year term) and DKS would be the CM for the second half. In the meanwhile, DKS would be waiting in the wings as Dy.CM for his turn. This was the MoU, so to say, and accordingly Congress assumed power with Siddaramaiah as CM on May 20, 2023.

All seemed hunky-dory for the second-coming of Siddaramaiah Government till the results of Parliamentary election in June 2024. It was a poor show for BJP, as expected, but it was not a good show for Congress either. However, the demand for new CM and for additional Dy.CMs, up to three or four, has begun to make news, rather one year too early. The demand for more Dy.CMs is to quell the demand for making DKS the CM and weaken his position politically, according to some political pundits.

Yesterday's newspapers and TV channels carried news about both Siddaramaiah and DKS headed to Delhi, by evening, apparently for getting to know the mind of the High Command in this regard apart from their other business.

In the meanwhile, yesterday morning here in Bengaluru on the auspicious day of Kempegowda Jayanti, a prominent Vokkaliga Swamiji too has demanded that DKS be made the CM in the very presence of Siddaramaiah on the stage. The Swamiji's reasoning is that Siddaramaiah has already held CM's Office for full five years and now this is an extended period. Therefore, now an opportunity should be given to a 'prominent leader of Vokkaliga community.' Surprisingly no one seemed to have mentioned the 'MoU' of 2023.

Reading about the rivalry for power among senior Congress MLAs belonging to different religions and castes, specially for the Dy.CMs' posts and the CM's Office, my thoughts went rambling about these political carpetbaggers and how in the past each succeeded in realising the dream office.

I have found a qualitative difference in the way BJP and Congress rewarded the party workers for their service to the party. BJP expects party workers to do selfless service, without expecting anything in return, just for the love of Mother India, Bharat Matha. A similar sentiment was expressed recently by the RSS Chief too. But let me, with apologies to Jesus, say that man does not live by the word of God alone but also by bread. Did you get me Steve?

However, in contrast Congress always rewarded those who served the party and the dynasty well. Loyalty to the party and the Dynasty was the sure way of getting rewarded with power, pelf or other kinds of benefits to a Congressman.

Be that as it may, now let me recall, though faintly, how it happened in Congress in the past. I will begin with Devaraj Urs, the blue-eyed boy of Indira Gandhi. He did not have a caste base, being from Urs community, a minuscule minority community, he had zero balance in his Vote Bank account. He was the Chief Minister for one full term and also for the second term simply because of his loyalty to Congress party and the dynasty. However, to his bad luck, he fell out of favour with Indira Gandhi following post-Emergency political developments. His loyalty became suspect and Indira Gandhi replaced him with R. Gundu Rao, a Indira-Sanjay Gandhi loyalist.

Other names I remember are of Dy.CMs who were catapulted to CM's Office for their loyalty and patience. To name, S. Bangarappa, Dr. M. Veerappa Moily and S.M. Krishna. Now we have Dy.CM D.K. Shivakumar waiting in the wings to become the CM and, I am sure, he too will be rewarded by the Congress High Command-Dynasty as per the MoU and Congress culture.

As an example to this loyalty and reward culture of Congress, I may add what DKS told Ramesh Aravind in his TV programme 'Weekend with Ramesh' some time back. DKS talks about how Rajiv Gandhi chose him over other seniors to go abroad for a conference and how his opinion influenced Rajiv Gandhi, the then Prime Minister, in choosing S. Bangarappa as CM after removing a bedridden Chief Minister Veerendra Patil. Hearing DKS, I thought, if Rajiv Gandhi were to be alive today, DKS would not have had to worry about becoming a CM by now. But who knows, to be fair to DKS, the dynasty might decide the destiny of DKS favourably.

Whatever it be, we see straws in the wind about the change to come — the conflicts within the Congress, betrayals and shifting of loyalties if DKS is denied his rightful claim to the Throne of Karnataka.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT: When S. Bangarappa as CM offered DKS the Ministry of Prisons and Home Guards, DKS was reluctant to accept the portfolio. But Bangarappa told him, "I too was given the same portfolio by Devaraj Urs and see where I am now. You too may become the Chief Minister." Did you get me Steve?

MUDA Commissioner

Before SOM broke the story, MUDA Chairman K. Marigowda had directed MUDA Commissioner to halt distribution of sites under 50:50 ratio.

Scrutinising files

The inspection team arrived at the MUDA office around 12.30 pm and summoned Commissioner Dinesh Kumar, who was not at his seat due to a pre-scheduled meeting. He arrived at 1.30 pm.

Before his arrival, IAS Officer Venkatachalapathy ordered the staff to retrieve all files related to the 50:50 ratio deal and began scrutinising them. As soon as Dinesh Kumar arrived, the team was ready with questions, and sources say the Commissioner was grilled until 8:30 pm. Snacks and dinner were even brought to his chamber.

As questions were posed to the Commissioner regarding site allotment, relevant documents were summoned from various sections, including incentive sites, land acquisition files from the Office of MUDA Special Land Acquisition Officer, files of compensation distributed to land losers, and the utilisation of the remaining lands.

140 files seized

The team scrutinised all the relevant files and seized over 140 documents that had discrepancies, doubtful mentions and entry mismatches. They then summoned officers from Superintending Engineer's section, requesting details of incentive sites and Correct Dimension (CD) Lists.

Proceedings of Sept. 14, 2020 meeting

Next, the team turned to the Town Planning Member Office, where records of area and layout planning, alternative sites, leftover land, and the exact number of sites distributed under the 50:50 records are kept, was summoned. Records were also retrieved from Finance Department and the Technical Section Engineers and Surveyors to tally accrued revenue.

The inspection team then visited MUDA Secretary's Office, but he was not present in his chamber. The team gathered information about approvals granted by Secretary, the process and communications involved in granting sites. The team also summoned and reviewed the proceedings of MUDA meeting held on Sept. 14, 2020, which resolved to allot sites under 50:50 ratio for lands used in site development.

The statements of MUDA Commissioner, section heads and other senior Officers were recorded after 8.30 pm and the team left for Bengaluru with files, findings and other records.

'Somanathapura Tourist Circuit planned during forthcoming Dasara'

Joint Director of Tourism M.K. Savitha inaugurates two-day India Domestic Travel Mart

Mysuru, June 28 (BLU&BS)- Sri Chennakeshava Temple at Somanathapura near Bannur in the district, that was declared United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organisation (UNESCO) World Heritage Site in September 2023, still remains unexplored by many tourists, when it comes to the volume of tourists visiting other places of interest in Mysuru and its surroundings. To promote Somanathapura as a prominent tourist destination, the Department of Tourism has bigger plans to attract visitors under Somanathapura Tourist Circuit, during Mysuru Dasara.

This was disclosed to media persons by M.K. Savitha, Joint Director of Tourism, on the sidelines of two-day India Domestic Travel Mart, that was inaugurated at Le Ruchi The Prince Hotel, in city this morning. The event comprising about 30 stalls is organised by India Travel Mart Exhibitions and will be organised in Begaluru too in the coming days.

Savitha said, to promote tourist places like Somanathapura, Talakad and Mudukuthore Mallikarjuna Swamy temple, forming a circuit, these sites will be illuminated, besides hosting musical events and running special buses to those places, for 10 days during Dasara.

Many tourists, who visit Mysuru, will be having Bandipur Forest as their next destination on itinerary. But not many are aware about Somanathapura temple (popular as Chennakeshava temple), its historical and architectural significance belonging to Hoysala era. Hence, the plan to promote Somanathapura Tourist Circuit, she added.

Reacting to a query, Savitha said it is not possible to run Ambaari double-decker buses on Somanathapura circuit, considering its height.

Ticketgenie App

The Department also has plans to introduce Ticketgenie App to provide easy access to the tourist spots in and around Mysuru in the coming days, said Savitha.

"Tourists can avail all info about tourist spots in and around Mysuru, right from the opening and closing hours, holiday, illumination timings of Palace etc. They can also buy ticket online through the App and have a direct access to these tourist spots. The group tourists/ visitors, visiting four and above tourist spots can also avail concession in entry fee. This provides a hassle free experience for tourists," she said.

President of Mysuru District Hotel Owners Association C. Narayanagowda, Mysuru Travels Association President B.S. Prashanth, Hon. President C.A. Jayakumar, Director of Jupiter Travel Exhibitions T.J.P. Raju and others were present.

UoM presents Rs. 80.35 crore deficit budget for 2024-25

Mysuru, June 28 (RK&KS)- A deficit budget of Rs. 80.35 crore for the year 2024-25 was presented by Finance Officer K.S. Rekha at the University of Mysore (UoM) Academic Council Meeting held at Crawford Hall here this morning.

Rekha said the expected revenue is Rs. 277.39 crore as against the expenditure of Rs. 357.74 crore, resulting in a deficit of Rs. 80.35 crore.

MLC C.N. Manjegowda, also a Member of UoM Academic Council, who objected to the budget said that there are 1,340 non-teaching staff appointed on temporary basis, who are being paid a total of Rs. 2.5 crore as salaries and Rs. 120 crore as pension annually. He said the Government provides only Rs. 20 crore to Rs. 25 crore annually and the rest should be sourced through fees and other revenue means. The MLC then questioned why such unnecessary appointments were made.

Replying to it, Registrar V.R. Shylaja said that the appointments were made between 2000 and 2020 as it was necessary and added that they were rationalising it by following the related procedures. She also said that there is a shortage of teaching staff and the Government should look into it at the earliest.

Vice-Chancellor Prof. N.K. Lokanath, Registrar (Evaluation) Dr. Basappa and other Committee members were present.

Lone landslide survivor's story of resilience, hope

Through her grit and determination, Pallavi of Madikeri has now earned a doctorate degree

Dr. Pallavi

Madikeri, June 28 (PS& BCT)- In the heart of Madikeri, during the devastating 2006 monsoon, a tragedy unfolded that claimed the lives of many, including an entire family. Amidst the chaos and despair, one young girl miraculously survived, her story becoming a beacon of hope and resilience.

Pallavi, a 16-year-old girl from Mangaladevi Nagar, was caught in a massive landslide on July 3, 2006, at around 3.30 am. The landslide buried two houses under mud claiming the lives of six family members.

Pallavi's mother Radha, her sister Jyoti (14), her brother Abhishek (12) and a neighbour's child were among the six individuals who perished. The disaster struck their homes in Mangaladevi Nagar, reducing them to rubble.

However, against all odds, Pallavi was found clinging to life amidst the rubble, her body battered but her spirit unbroken. She was rushed to the Madikeri District Hospital, where she underwent extensive treatment for several months.

Her recovery was nothing short of a miracle, and during this time, the aspirations of a bright career her mother had instilled in her took root deeply. Determined to honour her mother's dreams and her new found lease on life, Pallavi pursued higher education with unwavering dedication.

Her journey, marked by perseverance and hard work, led her to achieve a Ph.D., earning her the distinguished title of Dr. Pallavi. Today, Dr. Pallavi is an Assistant Professor at Jain University in Bengaluru.

DC led rescue operations

The then Deputy Commissioner Subodh Yadav led the rescue operations, guiding the forces in a daring effort to recover those who were trapped. Six bodies were recovered from the harrowing site and Pallavi was discovered clinging to her life under the mud.

In the aftermath, the Government provided a compensation of Rs. 3 lakh to Pallavi, facilitated by Subodh Yadav, to support her future education. The money was deposited in her name as directed by the DC and that aided her education.

A guardian comes forward

K.T. Baby Mathew

Left orphaned and bereft of her immediate family, Pallavi found a guardian in K.T. Baby Mathew, a compassionate social worker and resident of Madikeri. His unwavering support and guidance became Pallavi's lifeline. She found a new home with her maternal uncle, Sundar and aunt Rukmini, in Murnad, where she continued her high school education.

Despite the immense personal loss, Pallavi excelled academically, achieving high grades in her second PUC. She pursued undergraduate studies at Field Marshal K.M. Cariappa College in Madikeri with distinction and completed her postgraduate studies at Mangalore University.

She took to teaching and her dedication and hard work led her to a position as an Assistant Professor in the Management Studies Department at Jain College in Bengaluru. Although Pallavi spent her childhood with her loving parents, her determination to fulfil her educational aspirations and her mother's dreams never wavered.

Dr. Pallavi displaying Ph.D degree certificate she received recently during the convocation of Mangalore University.

Doctoral degree

Under the mentorship of Dr. Anasuya Rai, Pallavi delved into the intricate world of banking and insurance. Her dedication culminated in a doctoral degree for 'Bancassurance from an Indian Perspective - A comparative study between banks in Udupi & DK districts' conferred on June 15, 2024, at a convocation ceremony held at Mangalore University, marking a significant milestone in her academic journey. This achievement has brought immense pride to the people of Madikeri and the entire Kodagu district.

The community of Madikeri embraced her as one of their own, always considering her a daughter of their town. "Her attainment of a doctoral degree brings immense joy to my life," said Baby Mathew.

"Fate spared her life 18 years ago, and now fate has shown that with ingenuity and self-confidence, anything can be achieved. Pallavi stands as a shining example to society," he added.

Fulfilling her mother's dreams

The affection and support from the people of Madikeri during her most difficult times are something Pallavi cherishes deeply. Without their cooperation and guidance, she acknowledges that achieving this educational milestone would not have been possible.

Pallavi attributes her accomplishment to her mother's aspirations, who always wanted her children to receive a good education. Despite facing immense challenges, especially the devastating loss of her siblings in the landslide, Pallavi remained focused on fulfilling her mother's dreams.

Now, with a doctorate to her name, Pallavi finds immense joy in having realised her mother's aspirations. She also mentioned that alongside preparing for the Indian Administrative Service (IAS) exam in 2019 and taking the exams thrice, she has dedicated herself to teaching and research.

Glass bridge in Madikeri faces landslide risk; closed

Heavy rains pound Kodagu District; Dubare Elephant Camp shut as River Cauvery swells

Kushalnagar, June 28 (AG& BCT)- The second glass bridge in Kodagu district, installed just four months ago at Nandi Motte in Hebbatageri village on the road to Abbey Falls and Mandalapatti in Madikeri taluk, is now facing a precarious situation.

Following a landslide underneath the bridge on Wednesday night, the three supporting pillars of the bridge have become unstable, exacerbated by heavy rains which further destabilised the hilly terrain.

The first glass skywalk bridge in the district — 'Pappy's Bridge of Coorg' — located at Udoth Motte near Madikeri on Bhagamandala Road, stands 78 feet tall, with a length of about 32 metres and a width of 2 metres.

Acting swiftly on reports of landslides threatening public safety, Kodagu Deputy Commissioner Venkat Raja this morning ordered Madikeri Tahsildar Praveen to immediately inspect the area. Following the Tahsildar's visit, the DC ordered the gates of the glass bridge to be locked, preventing entry.

Hailed as the tallest glass bridge in South India, this facility also features a skywalk. The bridge stands 270 feet high, 180 feet long and 8 feet wide. It is constructed with 40 mm toughened glass and supported by pillars.

At any given time, over 30 visitors can stand and walk on the bridge, enjoying breathtaking views from 270 feet above the ground. Each visitor is permitted to stay on the bridge for 10 minutes, with a cost of Rs. 300 per person.

The location where the glass bridge stands is reportedly unsuitable for development and has been classified as a landslide-prone area and a Green Belt Zone. During the 2018 landslide, the ground in this area cracked, prompting the Kalakeri Nidugane Gram Panchayat to reject proposals for residential construction and borewell drilling.

Despite these concerns over ground stability, questions are now being raised regarding how permission was granted for the construction of this glass bridge. Area residents alleged that except for a No Objection Certificate (NOC) from the Kalakeri Nidugane Gram Panchayat, no other permissions have been secured to build the bridge. Villagers also have filed a complaint with the Zilla Panchayat CEO.

Residents and concerned citizens have urged the District Administration to immediately review all pertinent documents and take necessary measures to avert any potential disaster. This issue has sparked significant public concern due to its implications for public safety and infrastructure stability in the region.

Dubare Elephant Camp closed

In response to heavy rainfall in the catchment areas of the River Cauvery, leading to a significant rise in water levels, the Dubare Elephant Camp near Nanjarayapatna, Kushalnagar Taluk, on the banks of the River has been closed to visitors. The Forest Department has implemented strict restrictions on entry to ensure the safety of all.

Visitors intending to reach Dubare must cross the swollen River, as there is no bridge available. However, due to the current water levels, boating services have been suspended until the situation improves.

Effective immediately, entry to the Dubare Elephant Camp has been prohibited. The Forest Department has arranged for transportation using four motor boats to ferry visitors across the River and to the camp. This service will resume once conditions permit safe access.

WORD OF THE DAY

Cardinal

Pronunciation: KAHRD-nul (Adjective)
Meaning: Cardinal is an adjective used to describe things—usually abstract things such as rules or principles—that are of basic or main importance. The word is also used, especially in the phrase "cardinal sin," with the meaning "very serious or grave."
Origin: Mathematics, religion, ornithology—everything seems to hinge on cardinal. As a noun, cardinal has important uses in all three of aforementioned realms of human inquiry; as an adjective cardinal describes things of basic or main importance, suggesting that outcomes turn or depend on them. Both adjective and noun trace back to the Latin adjective cardinalis, meaning "serving as a hinge," and further to the noun cardo, meaning "hinge." Since 12th century, cardinal has been used as a noun referring to a fundamentally important clergyman of the Roman Catholic Church, ranking only below the pope. (The clergyman's red robes gave the familiar North American songbird its name.) By the 1300s cardinal was also being used as adjective we know today, to describe abstract things such as principles or rules (as opposed to, say, red wheelbarrows) upon which so much depends.
Example: "The cardinal rule of stargazing is going somewhere dark — the darker the skies, the better the view." — Stefanie Waldek, Travel + Leisure, 11 Aug. 2023.
